Little Bighorn National Monument (approx. 60 miles east of Billings on I-90)

Less than one hour’s drive from Billings, the Custer Battlefield memorializes the famous “Last Stand” of Lt. Col. George A. Custer, where 263 US soldiers and personnel met death at the hands of several thousand Lakota and Cheyenne warriors in June of 1876. www.nps.gov/libi/index.htm

Montana Pro Rodeo Hall and Wall of Fame

Located in the Historic District of downtown Billings, the Wall and sculpture recognize the outstanding achievements of Montana rodeo cowboys and cowgirls. www.montanaprorodeo.org

Moss Mansion Historic Museum

Located on the west end of downtown, the Moss Mansion offers a fascinating glimpse into history. A one-hour guided tour captures the turn of the century life in Billings, and features the home, original furnishings, and décor of Preston Boyd Moss. The 1903 Mansion, now listed on the National Register of Historic Places, was designed by New York architect Henry Janeway Hardenbergh and built in 1903. www.mossmansion.com

Pompey’s Pillar (approximately 25 minutes east of Billings)

Pompey’s Pillar, a 200 foot high rock formation, bears the signature and date inscribed by William Clark, Corps of Discovery of the Lewis and Clark Expedition. It is a vivid record of this remarkable journey to discover the West. www.pompeyspillar.org

Yellowstone Art Museum (only a few blocks away on North 27th Street)

Founded in 1964, Yellowstone Art Museum (YAM) has become the preeminent art museum in the region. YAM recently joined the elite ranks of the few museums accredited by the American Alliance of Museums. Its permanent collection numbers 7,500 objects is housed in the 50,000 SF museum and nearby Visible Vault, a storage facility open to the public. YAM features an excellent collection of Western art (including C. M. Russell, Will James, J. H. Sharp) and a first-rate collection of contemporary artists such as Deborah Butterfield, Rudy Autio, John Buck, Russell Chatham, Peter Voulkos, and Freeman Butts. YAM is a “don’t miss” stop in Billings! www.artmuseum.org

Zoo Montana and Botanical Gardens

The region’s only accredited zoo is located on the West End of Billings, just off I-90. Here, visitors can admire wild animals in a natural setting. Major exhibits include Amur Tigers, River Otters, Grizzly Bears, Big Horn Sheep, and Red Pandas, just to name a few. Zoo Montana also offers many Botanical Gardens, including the delightful Sensory Garden. www.Zoomontana.org

Pictograph Cave State Park (about 25 minutes away)

Pictograph Cave State Park is a place to contemplate the origins of human habitation in Montana. The Pictograph Cave site was designated as a National Historic Landmark in 1964, because of its archeological significance. Today's visitors can enjoy a unique opportunity to explore the mystery of this extraordinary site and tour the visitor center. www.fwp.mt.gov/stateparks/pictograph-cave/

Reef Indoor Water Park is the largest in the state of Montana – it's as big as a football field! Climb 3 stories up, then rocket down the Barracuda Blaster or the Tropical Twister – guaranteed to charge your batteries – then shoot into the plunge pool when you emerge from the tubes. If you're game, challenge your friends to a round of water basketball. Need a break? Ride waves in the 55,000-gallon wave pool. The little guys have the greatest interactive playhouse designed just for them – slides, mini-tubes, squirt guns, and tunnels – and best of all, a 250-gallon dumping bucket! Safe, fun, and strong enough for Mom and Dad – even Grandpa! Tables surround The Reef, indoors and outside on the enclosed patio – plenty of space for families to gather – and when you all get hungry, Shark Shack has something for everyone! www.thereefindoors.com

GET AIR Indoor Trampoline Park manages more than 70 of the nation's biggest and best trampoline parks. Our trampoline parks offer innovative features including wall-to-wall trampolines, foam pits, dodgeball courts, basketball dunk lanes, obstacle courses and more!
